Status

The Safe Takoma program undertook the following organizational and programming steps in June 2009.

- Board meeting held June 11.
- Pursued request for Washington DC FY10 funding.
- Programming:

Safe Silver Spring – crime summit – Handled finances as a 501(c)(3) pass-through for in support of the Silver Spring crime summit.

Conflict Resolution Training – Worked on arrangements for rescheduled Try Peace (conflict resolution) programming to be held in July at Montgomery College. Performed outreach; created and distributed fliers; took registrations; made arrangements with program facilitators, etc. We are expecting a full program with up to 22 participants. Planning additional programs: a) an August workshop for junior counselors in the Coolidge Alumni Association's Summer Youth Program and b) a September program Metropolitan Police Department sworn officers and civilian staff, working with Ms Sharon Vaughan-Roach.

Pre-Apprenticeship – Completed the Get Ready to Work program at the Joint School of Carpentry. Four participants completed the program successfully. Discussing next steps.

July 2009 Plans

- Coordinate and hold monthly board meeting.
- Follow-up contact with people who signed up for whistles at the April 7 event.
- Conduct Try Peace (conflict resolution) programming, July 18-22 at Montgomery College.
- Plan August conflict-resolution workshop for junior counselors in the Coolidge Alumni Association's Summer Youth Program
- Plan September conflict-resolution program for Metropolitan Police Department sworn officers and civilian staff, working with Ms Sharon Vaughan-Roach.
- Distribute public safety fliers to be provided by the Takoma Park Police Department.
- Research interest to hold another Employment Readiness training program and coordinate as necessary. So far 10 past attendees have expressed an interest in returning. Also returned messages of others who have children or clients interested, for a total of 14.
- Continue outreach efforts.
- Work on board member recruiting.
- Aim to complete accounting for Takoma Park, MD funds in early August in order to return uncommitted, unspent funds by August 15.
- Carry out regular planning, administrative, and reporting tasks.
